Auckland Council Bledisloe Walkway Light Boxes walkway between Aotea Square and Wellesley Street

Fallen by John Pusateri. Photographed against lush black, luminous invertebrates re-enact their final descent into ensnarement as they hover above jewel-like object fragments found near their capture sites. Bledisloe Walkway Light Boxes is an exhibition series organised by Auckland Council for the walkway between Aotea Square and Wellesley Street.

Texan Art Schools Ponsonby 95 Ponsonby Road texanartschools.co.nz 376 6064

Irresistible. Inspired by the hiss and glow of the camping lantern and the gentle ping of moths beating a pilgrimage to the light within, this work is a collaboration of found and collected, wired and stitched. Artists Su McPherson and Justine Hawksworth explore the nature of instinct and the irresistible draw of light. 6pm to midnight

Parnell Inc Parnell Road.

Be captivated by Sian Torrington's ambitious One abandoned uncontained movement has opened a new room in me. Created on-site over the course of several weeks and illuminated for White Night, this monumental nest-like installation inhabits and entwines one of Parnell's historic trees.
